General Fiction

☐ Mary Wesley. Not that sort of Girl

For the whole of Rose's respectable married life, she had kept faith with two men. To Ned she was a perfect wife, mother of his son and elegant hostess of Slepe. To Mylo, Rose was an impetuous and unconventional mistress, answering his erratic and impassionate calls throughout fifty years of tactful duplicity. After Ned's funeral Rose looks back on a life of dual constancy, passion, humour, and the ambiguities of love - and chooses her future.

3CD UA $35.00 Narrated by Anna Massey

☐ Kelly Braffet. Last Seen Leaving

Twenty-something drifter Miranda crashes her car late at night on a lonely highway and is picked up by a passing stranger who soon reveals himself to be more sinister than at first glance. With Miranda's father dead after a plane crash over Central America and her estranged mother, Anne, looking for comfort in a New Age lifestyle in the Arizona desert, it's not until two months later that Anne's nightmare begins when she tries to reach out to her daughter, only to find her missing...

8CD UA $29.95 Narrated by Kevagne Kalisch

☐ Lionel Shriver. The Post-Birthday World

It all hinges on one kiss. Whether Irena McGovern does or does not lean in to a specific pair of lips in London will determine whether she stays with her disciplined, intellectual, withdrawn but supportive partner Lawrence or runs off with Ramsey, a hard-living snooker player, the volatile, spontaneous ex-husband of an acquaintance. Using a parallel universe structure, we follow Irena's life under two discrete influences. The contrasts between the two men have ramifications for everything, even for the texture of Irena's daily life.

6CD $39.95 Narrated by Laurel Lefkow

☐ Alan Bennett. Triple Bill: A Visit from Miss Prothero; Say Something Happened; Two in Torquay

A Visit from Miss Prothero: Since Mr Dodsworth retired he has had all the time in the world. Then he has a visitor from his old firm - Miss Prothero who is eager to tell him all the news...

Say Something Happened: A naïve inexperienced social worker calls on an elderly couple, but does she need more help than they do?

Two in Torquay: A middle aged man and a middle aged woman engage in polite conversation in a hotel in the Cornish Riviera but neither is quite who they appear to be.

1CD UA $24.95 Performed by Author, Hugh Lloyd, Patrica Routledge, Judi Dench, Thora Hird, Brian Wilde, Imelda Staunton

☐ Tracy Chevalier. Burning Bright

Poet, artist, and printer William Blake - local eccentric and political radical - works anonymously in the London of 1732. Maggie Butterfield, the streetwise daughter of a local rogue, is looking for trouble - or at least a friend. When she and young Jem Kellaway are drawn into Blake's spell, the chance meeting of three unusual souls sets the stage for influencing one of the greatest and most mystical works in English literature, Songs of Innocence and of Experience.

10CD UA $59.95 Narrated by Jill Tanner

☐ Mary Wesley. An Imaginative Experience

While traveling on a train, Sylvester Wykes sees a woman leap from the carriage to rescue a sheep. The image of her face lodges in his mind and forms the seed of a splendid drama of love and fate. Told with a perfect sweetness and cynicism, rich in character and malicious wit, this is one of Wesley's most intelligent and intensely moving novels.

3CD UA $35.00 Narrated by Anna Massey

 Toni Morrison. Beloved

Proud and beautiful, Sethe escaped from slavery but is haunted by its heritage – from the fires of the flesh to the heartbreaking challenges to the spirit. Set in rural Ohio several years after the Civil War, this profoundly affecting chronicle of slavery and its aftermath is Toni Morrison's greatest work.

10CD UA $69.95 Narrated by author

 Marina Lewycka. Two Caravans

An idyll of the English countryside: a beautiful summer's evening in a Kent field, and around their two caravans a little group of strawberry pickers is getting ready to celebrate a birthday. But who picks our strawberries these days? The Ukrainians...

But these are a group leading dangerous lives - exploitative employers, British regulations and gang masters with guns will all threaten their existence as they take to the caravan road.

Hilarious, gritty, moving, and slapstick by turns.

4CD $39.95 Narrated by Sian Thomas

 Michael Wallner. April in Paris

In 1943, Michel Roth is a young soldier working in the German army's back offices in occupied Paris, expected to act as translator for the confessions of captured resistance workers. When he decides not to comply, he changes personas and becomes "Monsieur Antoine", a young Frenchman who falls in love with Chantal, daughter of an antiquarian bookseller. His jealous suspicions when he refuses to take heed of her warning about the notorious cafe Turachevsky, favoured nightspot for German officers and the French women who entertain them, leads to a terrible trap and a terrifying cat-and-mouse pursuit through the devastated countryside of post-war France.

6CD UA $59.95 Narrated by Paul Michael

 Virginia Ironside. No! I Don't Want To Join A Book Club

Sian Phillips gives perfect voice to protagonist Marie Sharp in this insightful and entertaining audiobook. In a British accent that is elderly yet full of spitfire energy, Phillips conveys all the facets of Marie's distinctive personality: strong-willed, opinionated, witty, by turns delightfully acerbic and unabashedly sentimental. Marie looks forward to turning 60, seeing it as a time to relax, potter about and enjoy her grandchild without feeling guilty about being unproductive – and she refuses to allow anyone to tell her otherwise.

7CD UA $69.95 Narrated by Sian Phillips

 Erica Jong. Fear of Flying

Isadora Wing was afraid of flying. She was also afraid of her own beauty, brains, physical appetites, and intellectual curiosity. Then, while on a trip to Vienna with her brilliant, handsome psychiatrist husband, Isadora met the man who embodied her most erotic fantasies – and who offered her a chance to conquer all her fears.

This uninhibited, erotic, witty novel changed American fiction forever.

10CD UA $55.00 Narrated by Hope Davis

 Trezza Azzopardi. Winterton Blue

For the last twenty years, Lewis has been haunted by his brother Wayne's death. Then he meets Anna, a young woman who is also haunted - by her mother, Rita, a vivacious spirit who is very much alive. Rita is the exact opposite of her daughter: loud, carefree, and a daredevil.

Against the backdrop of the Norfolk coast, with its massive skies and relentless seas, Lewis and Anna must learn to trust each other, and accept that an uncertain future can be as wild and alluring as the landscape they have grown to love.

7CD UA $59.95 Narrated by Michael Page

 Arthur Phillips. Angelica

London – the 1880s. When Constance marries Joseph Barton, she believes she's found the perfect husband and protector. But three miscarriages and one troubled birth later, Constance begins to fear Joseph. She keeps their daughter Angelica in the bedroom to protect the girl, but eventually Joseph orders the practice to stop. Unsure what to think of her husband and concerned for her and Angelica's safety, Constance feels her dread grow when she senses a supernatural presence in the house. She seeks the help of a spiritualist, but it may already be too late.

11CD UA $79.95 Narrated by Susan Lyons

 Ian McEwan. Black Dogs

In 1946, a young couple set off on their honeymoon. Fired by their ideals and passion for one another, they plan an idyllic holiday, only to encounter an experience of darkness so terrifying, it alters their lives for ever.

'I judge it his best yet, which I should make clear is saying a great deal – Observer

'Superbly evocative prose! The novel's vision of Europe is acute and alive, vivid in its moral complexities' – New York Times Book Review
'Compassionate without resorting to sentimentality, clever without ever losing its honesty... Ian McEwan's most human work' – Times Literary Supplement

3CD $39.95 Narrated by Steven Mackintosh

 Irene Nemirovsky. Fire in the Blood

By the author of the internationally acclaimed Suite Française. At the centre of the tale is Silvio: in his younger years he fled the boredom of his insular French village and made a life of travel and adventure. Now he's returned, living in a farmer's hovel in the middle of the woods, and, much to his family's chagrin, perfectly content with his solitude. The narration unfolds to reveal an intimate picture of the loves and infidelities, the scandals, the youthful ardour and regrets of age that tie Silvio to the long-guarded secrets of the past.

3CD UA $49.95 Narrated by Mark Bramhall

 Haruki Murakami. After The Quake

In 1995, the Japanese city of Kobe suffered a massive earthquake. Nearly 6,000 people died. after the quake was the imaginative response from Japan's leading novelist, Haruki Murakami: six stories, each dealing not directly with the catastrophe but the wider seismic effect it had on the emotional lives of people many miles away.

It became a catalyst for individuals to reassess their lives with unexpected consequences for themselves and their families and friends around them.

4CD UA $45.95 Narrated by Rupert Degas, Teresa Gallagher, Adam Sims

 Penny Vincenzi. The Dilemma

All Francesca Channing had to do in order to keep her marriage alive, her children safe, her life intact, was to tell a lie. Her life, as Bard Channing's third wife, was very far from easy. He was charismatic, powerful and rich - and he adored her. He was also manipulative and scheming, with a family as large and complex as his business. But it was an emotional crisis of her own which finally put Francesca's dilemma into perspective. Made her wonder if she loved Bard enough to lie for him...

6CD $49.95 Narrated by Laura Brattan

 Susan Vreeland. Luncheon of the Boating Party

Imagine the banks of the Seine in the thick of la vie moderne, as Auguste Renoir conceives, plans and paints the 1880 masterpiece that gives this vivid novel its title. Renoir, then 39, pays the rent on his Montmartre garret by painting "overbred society women in their fussy parlors" but, goaded by negative criticism from Emile Zola, he dreams of painting something groundbreaking. As Renoir observes a party of thirteen subjects from his terrace, he must capture the subject of his painting within two months before the light alters, and he must cope with his sudden infatuation for his new models...

14CD UA $79.95 Narrated by Karen White

 Colleen McCullough. The Thorn Birds

A phenomenal worldwide bestseller since 1977, The Thorn Birds is a robust, romantic saga of three generations. It begins in the early years of this century when Paddy Cleary moves his wife and seven children to Drogheda, an Australian sheep station, owned by his autocratic and childless older sister. For more than half a century we follow their fates, particularly those of Meggie, the only Cleary daughter, and the one man she truly loves, Ralph de Bricassart - stunningly handsome, ambitious, and a priest.

5D UA $39.95 Narrated by Greta Scacchi

 Alexander McCall Smith. The Good Husband of Zebra Drive

Precious Ramotswe, lady detective, is experiencing staffing problems and her relationship with her assistant, Mma Makutsi, has become somewhat strained. But in the meantime, three unfortunate incidents have happened in a hospital - each on the same day of the week and at the same time. Mr J.L.B. Matekoni is also drawn into the work of the agency when he investigates a case involving an errant husband. But can a man investigate such matters with as much skill as one of the ladies?

5CD $39.95 Narrated by Adjoa Andoh

 Sarah Waters. The Night Watch

Moving back through the 1940s, through air raids, blacked-out streets, illicit liaisons, sexual adventure, to end with its beginning in 1941, this novel tells the story of four Londoners: three women and a young man with a past, drawn with absolute truth and intimacy. Their lives, and their secrets, connect in sometimes startling ways. War leads to strange alliances. Tender, tragic and beautifully poignant, set against the backdrop of feats of heroism both epic and ordinary, here is a novel of relationships that offers up subtle surprises and twists.

16CD UA $79.95 Narrated by Juanita McMahon

 David Mitchell. Number9dream

As Eiji Miyake's twentieth birthday nears, he sets out for the seething metropolis of Tokyo to find the father he has never met. There, he begins a thrilling, whirlwind journey where dreams, memories and reality collide then diverge as Eiji is caught up in a feverish succession of encounters by turn bizarre, hilarious and shockingly dangerous. But until Eiji has fallen in love and exorcised his childhood demons, the belonging he craves will remain, tantalizingly, just beyond his grasp...

5CD $49.95 Narrated by Kris Milnes, Sandra Duncan, G. Armstrong, Christopher Kelham, Patricia Kerrigan, Al Senter

David Mitchell. Ghostwritten

An apocalyptic cult member carries out a gas attack on a rush-hour metro, but what connects him to a jazz buff in Tokyo? A woman on a holy mountain talks to a tree - and the tree talks back - unaware of the effect the financial irregularities of a burnt-out lawyer will have on her life. Add to this a Mongolian gangster, a redundant English spy in Petersburg with a knack for forging masterpieces, a despondent 'zookeeper', a nuclear scientist, a ghostwriter, a ghost, and a late night New York DJ whose hard-boiled scepticism has been his undoing.

5CD $49.95 Narrated by Gareth Armstrong, Dylan Charles, Sandra Duncan, Christopher Kelham, Patricia Kerrigan, Kris Milnes, Marcella Rordan, Hugh Ross, Kerry Shale

James Prosek. The Day my Mother Left

When his mother leaves with the father of his worst enemy at school, nine-year-old Jeremy seeks to make sense of her abandonment. He throws himself into recreating the "Book of Birds", a collection of drawings that his mother took with her on the day she left. While his father fights his own depression and his sister distances herself from their lives, Jeremy turns wholeheartedly to nature, and finds solace in the quiet comfort of drawing.

4CD UA $49.95 Narrated by Joel Johnstone

Gary Shteyngart. Absurdistan

Meet Misha Vainberg, an obese, extremely wealthy young Russian man stuck in Absurdistan, an imaginary republic. Unable to get a visa back to the U.S., Misha instead must fend for his life as a civil war erupts in the tiny country, to the concern of almost no one else in the world. Shteyngart's wordplay is a brilliant free-for-all in this engrossing tale of the failures, frustrations and hilarity resulting from Absurdistan's ardent pursuit of a Western-style modernity for which it is ill-prepared.

11CD UA $89.95 Narrated by Arte Johnson

Harry Thompson. Penguins Stopped Play

It seemed a simple enough idea: assemble a team of eleven men to play cricket on each of the seven continents of the globe. But throw in incompetent airline officials, amorous Argentine Colonels' wives, cunning Bajan drug dealers, gay Australian waiters, overzealous American anti-terrorist police, idiot Welshmen dressed as Santa Claus, Archbishop Desmond Tutu and whole armies of pitch-invading Antarctic penguins, and you quickly arrive at a whole lot more than you bargained for.

2CD $39.95 Narrated by Julian Rhind-Tutt

Arthur Miller. A View from the Bridge

This play by Arthur Miller won a Tony Award, and is a modern classic. Italian-American immigrant life in the 1950s textures this searing drama of love and revenge. Longshoreman Eddie Carbone is obsessed with his niece, Catherine, and his unhealthy and inappropriate feelings for her are inflamed when his wife's Sicilian relatives arrive as illegal immigrants, and Catherine falls in love with one of her cousins...

2CD UA $49.95 Performed by Mary McDonnell, Harry Hamlin, Amy Pietz and cast.

John Mortimer. Rumpole and the Reign of Terror

When a distressed Tiffany Timson tearfully explains that her husband Dr Khan has been arrested on suspicion of terrorism, Rumpole knows that to take on this case will mean not just defending one man, but squaring up to the very notion of modern British justice. With She Who Must Be Obeyed mysteriously shutting herself away and fellow-members of his chambers just plan scared, it seems Rumpole must stand alone against the Establishment. But that is precisely the position any defence barrister worth his salt most relishes!

3CD $39.95 Performed by Timothy West & Prunella Scales

Miss Read. Thrush Green

It's the May Day holiday and a fair has come to the village of Thrush Green. For young Paul, just recovered from an illness, it is a joy to be allowed out to play at the fair; for Ruth, who returned to the soothing tranquillity of Thrush Green nursing a broken heart, the fair is a welcome distraction from her own problems. For Dr Lovell, the fair brings an unexpected new patient. For Mrs Curdle, long-standing matriarch of the fair, this year's visit to Thrush Green awakens mixed feelings and a difficulty she doesn't want to face...

4CD $45.00 Narrated by Clare Higgins

Jodi Picoult. Nineteen Minutes

Sterling, NH, is a small, ordinary New Hampshire town where nothing ever happens - until a student enters the local high school with an arsenal of guns and starts shooting, changing the lives of everyone inside and out. The daughter of the judge sitting on the case is the state's best witness - but she can't remember what happened in front of her own eyes. Or can she? Featuring the return of some familiar characters (Jordan McAfee and Patrick Du Charme), Nineteen Minutes asks what it means to be different in our society, who has the right to judge someone else, and whether a person is every whom they seem to be.

18CD UA $89.95 Narrated by Carol Monda

Jill A. Davis. Ask Again Later

When her mother dramatically announces they've found a lump, Emily gladly takes a rain check on life to be by her mother's side, leaving behind her career, her boyfriend, and those pesky questions about who she is and what she's doing with her life. But one evening, Emily opens the door to quite literally find her past staring her in the face. How do you forge a relationship with the father who left when you were five years old, and who you've pretended all your life was dead?

5CD UA $59.95 Narrated by Ilyana Kadushin

Dorothy Koomson. My Best Friend's Girl

Best friends Kamryn Matika and Adele Brannon thought nothing could come between them - until Adele did the unthinkable and slept with Kamryn's fiancé, Nate. When Kamryn realised their betrayal, she vowed never to see any of them again. Two years later, Adele, dying in hospital, contacts Kamryn with a request that will ask everything from the friend she betrayed - to adopt the little girl who is the living reminder of Adele and Nate's unfaithfulness...

3CD $39.95 Narrated by Adjoa Andoh

Kiran Desai. The Inheritance of Loss

This briskly paced and sumptuously written novel is set in the 1980s in the northeast corner of India, where the borders of several Himalayan meet. Jemubhai Patel, a Cambridge-educated judge who has retired from serving a country he finds "too messy for justice", lives in an isolated house with his cook, his orphaned 17-year-old granddaughter, and a red setter. His tranquil existence is contrasted with the life of the cook's son, working in grimy Manhattan restaurants, and with his granddaughter's affair with a Nepali tutor involved in an insurgency that irrevocably alters Jemubhai's life.

10CD UA $79.95 Narrated by Meera Simhan

Daniel Kehlmann. Measuring The World

Two very different scientists meet at a conference in Berlin in 1828. The first is an exasperated curmudgeon named Carl Friedrich Gauss, a freakishly precocious genius known as the Prince of Mathematics. He's vexed about having to travel to the conference, but in a moment of weakness, he accepted an invitation from Alexander von Humboldt, whose famous travels around the world founded the field of biogeography. Humboldt's enthusiasm endows him with an armour of naïveté that protects him from cannibals, crocodiles and shipwreck, and his outrageously dangerous travels are the perfect subject for Kehlmann's lightly surreal style, a mixture of comedy, romance and the macabre, with flashes of magical realism. This quirky and charming novel is full of humour, latent sadness and a brilliant wit.

7CD UA $69.95 Narrated by Rider Strong

Various. More Classic American Short Stories

This collection contains eight stories from master American writers of the nineteenth century. They vary from sinister tales by Ambrose Bierce - why is that window boarded up? - and a reflective moment in the life of a woman without children, forced to look after children, to classic short stories by O. Henry and Stephen Crane. There is even an elegiac description of an eclipse by James Fenimore Cooper, author of The Last of the Mohicans.

2CD UA $31.95 Narrated by Garrick Hagon, Liza Ross

Armistead Maupin. The Night Listener

"I'm a fabulist by trade", warns Gabriel Noone, a late-night radio storyteller, as he begins to untangle the skeins of his tumultuous life: his crumbling ten-year love affair, his disaffection from his Southern father, his longtime weakness for ignoring reality. Gabriel's most sympathetic listener is Pete Lomax, a thirteen-year-old fan in Wisconsin whose own horrific past has left him wise and generous beyond his years. But when this virtual father-son relationship is rocked by doubt, a desperate search for the truth ensues.

David Mitchell. Black Swan Green

It's dank January in the Worcestershire village of Black Swan Green, and 13-year-old Jason Tyler (covert stammerer and reluctant poet) anticipates a stultifying year in the deadest village on Earth. But Jason hasn't reckoned on a junta of bullies, simmering family discord, the Falklands War, an exotic Belgian émigré, a threatened gypsy invasion and caprices of those mysterious entities known as girls...

Jeffrey Archer. First Among Equals

Playing for the highest stakes of all...

In the 1960s, four ambitious new MPs take their seats at Westminster. Over three decades they share the turbulent passions of the race for power with their wives and families, men and women caught up in a dramatic game for the highest stakes of all. But only one man can gain the ultimate goal - the office of Prime Minister...

"One of the top ten storytellers in the world." - Los Angeles Times

"There isn't a better storyteller alive." - Larry King

3CD $39.95 Narrated by Martin Jarvis

Joseph Heller. Catch-22

Set in the closing months of World War II, in an American bomber squadron on a small island off Italy, the hero of this famous novel is a bombardier named Yossarian, who is frantic and furious because thousands of people he hasn't even met keep trying to kill him. (He has decided to live forever even if he has to die in the attempt.)

Catch-22 is a microcosm of the twentieth-century world as it might look to someone dangerously sane. It is a novel that lives and moves and grows with astonishing power and vitality – outrageously funny, strangely affecting, and totally original.

16CD UA $79.95 Narrated by Jay O. Sanders

Nicole Krauss. The History of Love

14-year-old Alma Singer is trying to find a cure for her mother's loneliness. Believing she might discover it in an old book her mother is translating, she goes in search of its author. Across New York an old man called Leo Gursky is trying to survive. He spends his days dreaming of the lost Polish love that years ago inspired to write a book. He doesn't know it yet, but that book has survived: crossing oceans and generations, changing lives.

Patrick Suskind. Perfume

Survivor, genius, perfumer, killer: this is Jean-Baptiste Grenouille. He is abandoned on the filthy streets of Paris as a child, but grows up to discover he has an extraordinary gift: a sense of smell more powerful than any other human's. Soon, he is creating the most sublime fragrances in all the city. Yet there is one odour he cannot capture. It is exquisite, magical: the scent of a young virgin.

And to get it he must kill. And kill. And kill...

1mp3-CD UA $44.95 Narrated by Sean Barrett

Javier Sierra. The Lady in Blue

In Los Angeles, Jennifer Narody has been having a series of disturbing dreams involving eerie images of a lady dressed in blue. This same spirit had appeared to leaders of the Jumano Native American tribe in New Mexico 362 years earlier, and was linked to a Spanish nun capable of being in two places at the same time. Young journalist Carlos Albert is driven by a blinding snowstorm to the little Spanish town of A greda, where he stumbles upon a nearly forgotten 17th century convent founded by this same legendary woman. These threads, linked by an apparent suicide, form a mystery that the Catholic Church, the U.S. Defense Department, and the journalist are each determined to decipher – the Lady in Blue.

Kahlil Gibran. The Prophet & The Wanderer

Khalil Gibran (1883–1931) was Lebanese by birth but spent a major part of his life in America in the early part of the twentieth century. His best-known works are life-lessons told in the forms of parables or essays. He wrote many collections of stories with a wise or whimsical tone, but none more popular than The Prophet, his first collection, or The Wanderer, his final anthology. They are read here with great sympathy and understanding by Robert Glenister.

Kelly Braffet. Fabulous Things

Beautiful and brilliant, Josie and Jack Raeburn are closer than they should be, and run riot in their father's isolated house. But as his behaviour becomes more unpredictable, they are forced to leave, and face a world for which they are utterly unprepared. Jack's love for Josie has always been her safety-net. However, as his world grows wilder and more dangerous, she finds herself struggling: should she escape his control, or help him? It is only when they are united again, in the company of Jack's astoundingly rich girlfriend Lily, that she understands what she must do.

Kim Edwards. The Memory Keeper's Daughter

On a winter night in 1964, Dr. David Henry is forced by a blizzard to deliver his own twins. His son, born first, is perfectly healthy. Yet when his daughter is born and he sees that she has Down's Syndrome, he makes a split-second decision to send away the child to an institution and never reveal her existence to his wife. He is unaware that the nurse involved cannot bring herself to let the child be institutionalised, and that she takes the child herself. So begins this beautifully told story that unfolds over a quarter of a century in which two families, ignorant of each other, are yet bound by the fateful decision made that long-ago winter night.

Gail Tsukiyama. The Street of a Thousand Blossoms

Tokyo, 1939. Two orphaned brothers grow up with loving grandparents. The older boy shows early signs of promise in sumo wrestling; the younger is fascinated by the art of creating exquisite masks for actors in the Noh theatre. But as the ripples of war spread all the way to their quiet neighbourhood, the brothers must put their dreams on hold - and then forge their own paths in a new Japan. The reader is into a story that spans almost thirty years of tradition and change, of heartbreaking loss and surprising hope.

Nancy Horan. Loving Frank

"I have been standing on the side of life, watching it float by. I want to swim in the river. I want to feel the current." - So writes Mamah Borthwick Cheney in her diary as she struggles to justify her clandestine love affair with Frank Lloyd Wright. Mamah and her husband, Edwin, had commissioned the renowned architect to design a new home for them, and a powerful attraction developed between Mamah and Frank. In time the lovers, each married with children, embarked on a course that would shock Chicago society and forever change their lives. Fact and fiction are blended together in this novel to give full weight to the dramatic love story and its consequences.

Action / Adventure

Edgar Rice Burroughs. At the Earth's Core

David Innes has just inherited a large mining company. An eccentric inventor, Abner Perry, convinces Innes to fund a project to build an 'iron mole'. The mechanical beast works but, instead of digging for a few minutes and returning, they plunge straight through the earth's crust into the 'inner world' of Pellucidar, a horizon-less, primeval tropical landscape where the sun neither sets nor rises, populated by 'Sagoth' gorilla men, wild human slaves, and the ruling hypnotic reptilian 'Mahars'. Capture and enslavement appears to be their fate – until Perry learns to read the language of the Mahars, and finds a way to turn the tables...

Patrick O'Brian. The Nutmeg of Consolation

Capt. Jack Aubrey and the shipwrecked crew of the Diane fashion a schooner from the wreck, only to have their makeshift vessel burned in an attack by Malay pirates. Their escape is one that only the ingenuity of or Stephen Maturin could devise. The New South Wales penal colony, harrowingly described, is the backdrop to a diplomatic crisis provoked by Maturin's Irish temper and to a near-fatal encounter with the wildlife of the Australian outback.

"... no less than a tapestry of English life in the early nineteenth century that is almost Dickensian in its scope... Mr O'Brian's language is elegant, erudite and dense, exposing the reader to a world both high and low..." – New York Observer

Poetry

William Blake. The Great Poets: William Blake

William Blake was a poet of intense passion, of visions and angelic visitations and of bullish non-conformism. From a world where he was inspired by the terrible cruelties of child labour and the social and political revolutions swamping Europe and America, he created poetry of both power and tenderness.

Some of the works are fuelled by angry despair at Man's inhumanity, others joyously childlike, and others almost spiritual manifestos couched in language of rare delicacy.

Rudyard Kipling. The Great Poets: Rudyard Kipling

Rudyard Kipling (1865-1936) was a hugely popular poet and writer typifying the late Victorian age and its Empire. But, as this collection shows, there is far more to him than patriotism. Ranging from the tenderness of Mandalay ("Where the dawn comes up like thunder...") to the satire of The Betrothed ("A woman is only a woman, but a good cigar is a smoke"), from the vigour and compassion of Boots to the warmth and humanity of If, these poems show the depth and variety of Kipling's poetry, in readings that bring it vividly to life.

Jalaloddin Rumi. The Spiritual Verses

Spiritual Verses by Jalaloddin Rumi (1207-1273) is the greatest mystical poem in Islamic culture. Rumi tells of human separation from reality, from love and from truth. He speaks of love – neither erotic nor sentimental but divine, by which the universe is held together – enlightening ignorance and dissolving suffering. The first book of the Masnavi moves from simple, amusing tales into deeper realms. Masnavi-ye Ma'navi Book 1, translated by leading Persian scholar Dr Alan Williams.

George, Lord Byron. Don Juan

Don Juan is a handsome, charming young man, succumbing in delight to the beautiful women he meets along his journeys which take him from Spain to Greece, Russia, Constantinople and England. Sprinkled with digressions in which Byron gives his views on wealth, power, society, chastity, poets and England, this is a poetical novel of satirical fervour and wit. It is Byron's most sustained masterpiece, its structure varied and loose, its language exuberant and lyrical.

e.e. cummings. The Essential Cummings

In asking "Who, as a writer, am I?", E.E. Cummings's affirmation of life resolved into serenity as he described himself as someone "whose only happiness is to transcend himself, whose every agony is to grow." This collection of Cummings reading his own poetry embodies this in an unforgettable way. While perhaps best remembered for his use of such visual devices as typography and punctuation, the sheer sound of Cummings's work imparts a greater, deeper understanding of how its cadences reveal its profound meaning.

The characters in these stories are often separated from the mainstream - a juggler and a trapeze artist, a daughter whose mother is a public evangelist waging a war against sin, a cleaning woman whose life is inexplicably tied to Marie Curie's. The stories they inhabit transcend the barriers of time to explore the universally driving force of our experience: the magnitude of human love. In the title story, the narrator - a fire-eater in a circus - shows a careless disregard for a boy who comes to learn his trade and as a consequence brings about his own downfall.

Daniel Wallace. Mr Sebastian and the Negro Magician

This story tells the charming yet haunting story of Henry Walker whose life is changed forever when he crosses paths with the Devil, who teaches him magic and then steals the one thing that means the most to him. The tale begins in the 1940s with Jeremiah Musgrove's Chinese Circus where Henry is the resident magician, incapable of actually performing magic but popular with crowds because he is black with emerald eyes. While Henry is taken away by three teenagers, his story is told through the voices of his friends from the circus: Jenny the Ossified Girl, Rudy the Strong Man, and JJ the Barker, each of them sharing what they know of Henry's life - a tale that is simultaneously haunting, spell-binding, heartbreaking and unbelievable.

Michael Ondaatje. Divisadero

In the 1970s in Northern California, near Gold Rush country, a father and his teenage daughters, Anna and Claire, work their farm with the help of Coop, an enigmatic young man who makes his home with them. This makeshift family is riven by an incident of violence that sets fire to the rest of their lives.

In rural south-central France, Anna becomes immersed in the life and the world of a writer from an earlier time - Lucien Segura. His compelling story, beginning at the turn of the century, circles around "the raw truth" of Anna's own life, the one she's left behind but can never truly leave. As the narrative moves back and forth in time and place, we discover each of the characters managing to find some foothold in a present rough-hewn from the past.

Plays

Oscar Wilde. The Importance of Being Earnest

This play is Oscar Wilde's most famous - and justly so. Its wit is effervescent and pointed, giving rise to delicious situation comedy and many memorable lines. The baby left in a handbag at a railway station, the appropriation of the name "Ernest", the invention of a "dying" friend to explain otherwise inexplicable absences - these have found a permanent place in the language. Ever since the first night at St James' Theatre on 14th February 1895, The Importance of Being Earnest has been recognised as one of the world's finest comic dramas. Now Judi Dench as Lady Bracknell leads an outstanding cast in this superb production of Wilde's masterpiece, which was mounted to celebrate the centenary of the first performance.

Molière. The Misanthrope

Razor-sharp wit inflames a competitive game of survival in the salons of 17th century France where, in this world of "finest appearances", one man's blunt honesty shatters his society's delicate web of manners.

Often considered to be Molière's Hamlet, the play The Misanthrope (translated from the French) is a wickedly scathing satire and a delicious comedy of manners by one of France's finest playwrights.
